2010-2011 Schedule of Events

Kusi Taki

October 3rd at 2 PM ~ Experience the Andean cultures of Ecuador, Bolivia, Peru and Chile through an acoustic journey and storytelling.

David Marsh

November 14th at 2 PM ~ David Marsh offers a children- & family-focused music program. Using over a dozen instruments, he will perform positive, uplifting & humorous songs & stories suited specifically for children & parents.

Vocals, Keyboards & Instrumentals

February 27th at 2 PM ~ Local talents, Amy Fraser-mezzo-soprano, Nancy Jo Galusha-pianist, Ben Kaye-Skinner-instrumentalist, and Liz Kaye-Skinner-soprano will be featured in a program of varied musical genres and ensembles. Classical to pop music and tuba to flute selections and piano solos to duets will make for an enjoyable afternoon.

RED A Tribute by Tom Mullica

May 1st at 2 PM ~ Mullica, a celebrated entertainer in his own right, appears daily at The Mansion Theatre in Branson in what critics have described as "the funniest and most successful tribute show in America," a show that transports audiences into a virtual Red Skelton performance featuring his most memorably hilarious and equally touching routines.

If imitation is the highest form of flattery, Red Skelton would be flattered indeed by the work of Tom Mullica. In 2009 BransonCritic.com awarded Tom the Editor Award for best tribute artist in Branson.
